

Supervision Learning Collaborative

Starting as a new supervisor in behavioral health? Do you have less than two years of experience as a supervisor? Are you looking to strengthen your supervision skills and connect with other leaders?

Supervision Learning Collaborative

The Supervision Learning Collaborative offers an engaging, resource-rich learning community designed to support you in building strong supervisory skills and effective practices. Effective supervision leads to a stronger team and better client care. This collaborative offers tools to help you make a positive impact.

Meet our Expert Facilitator

Melanie Kinley has over 35 years of experience as a trainer and consultant, our facilitator has guided countless professionals across top organizations in behavioral health, including Thresholds, Trilogy Chicago, and NAMI Chicago, as well as Illinois Department of Human Services-sponsored programs. Their extensive background brings a wealth of knowledge and practical insight, making this collaborative a unique opportunity to learn from one of the field's most respected experts.

What to expect in collaborative learning? The learning collaborative will be interactive and hands-on learning, such as:

- Structured learning
- Shared case examples
- Skill building and practice application
- Brainstorming solutions

Who should join?

Newly hired behavioral health supervisors or have less than two years of experience in the role.

What is required?

The supervision training series is self-paced. To be a part of the learning collaborative, participants must complete each supervision training module: Knowing Yourself as a Supervisor, Providing Feedback and Addressing Conflict in Supervision, and Guiding Principles. Participants can access the supervision training series through the BHWC website, under Trainings.

Expected Start: Mid-January 2025!

Join us for six 90-minute sessions held monthly. Please note: The first two sessions will be scheduled closer together, followed by a monthly schedule. Final dates to be announced soon!

Can I receive CEUs? What is the stipend?

Attendees can receive 1.5 CEUs for each learning collaborative that they attend. There is a $1,000 stipend provided to agencies to cover staff time if staff complete at least five out of the six sessions.
